

Chicago – Men – #1 Andy Benesh / Miles Partain

Benesh / Partain are playing together for the 3rd time on the AVP and 13th time overall

- Their AVP debut as a team came in Huntington Beach, and they rebounded from a third-round loss to win the title... then in Atlanta the duo won again
- Their 5th-place in Hamburg two weeks ago ended a streak of reaching the semifinals in 7 straight events (including AVP and international), winning 2 AVP titles and 3 medals in that span... the duo won gold in Gstaad after twice defeating Norway's Anders Mol / Christian Sorum, becoming just the 2nd team to defeat the defending Olympic, World Championship and World Tour Finals champions twice in the same event (Netherlands' Alexander Brouwer / Robert Meeuwse in Rosarito, Mexico in March 2022)
- In each of their first 6 international tournaments they had to first play in the qualifier... they have a match record of 45-13 internationally, and 6 of their 13 losses have come to teams seeded either first or second
- In 1 season together on the AVP they have a 10-1 match record... they are 8-1 when winning the first set and 2-0 when losing the first set... they are 3-1 in three-set matches

Billy Allen – age 41 – 6'2" – hometown Fallbrook, Calif. – currently Berkeley, Calif. – Cal State Northridge

- This is Allen's 131st AVP event with 18 different partners
- He has 2 wins (in Seattle 2016 with Theo Brunner and in Seattle 2017 with Stafford Slick) plus one Tour Series win (in Denver 2023 with Alison Cerutti), 5 seconds and 12 thirds
- All of his wins have come in rainy places (not necessarily rainy during the tournament), as he won in Seattle 2016, in Seattle 2017 and in Denver 2023 on the Tour Series (which as of the tournament date had more rain year to date than Seattle)
- Including the Tour Series Allen has advanced to the semifinals in 6 of his last 10 AVP tournaments, and to the finals in 3 of his last 7 events
- Allen began the 2023 season with Andy Benesh in Miami, losing both matches 15-12 in the third set and finishing in 13th place... he then played twice with Troy Field, finishing 2nd in New Orleans and 7th in Huntington Beach
- The 2006 event in Chicago was the first time that Allen played an AVP tournament outside of the state of California... he lost in the qualifier with Jon Mesko, finishing in 41st place
- He has advanced to the semifinals on the AVP with 8 different partners and to the championship with 5 different ones
- Allen is playing in his 12th AVP tournament in Chicago with his 11th different partner... his has been to two semifinals here (placed 3rd with Stafford Slick in 2017 and placed 3rd with Andy Benesh in 2021)

Alison Cerutti – age 37 – 6'8" – hometown Vitoria, Brazil. – currently Manhattan Beach, Calif.

- Alison is playing in his 8th AVP event with 3 different partners
- His first AVP event came in 2009 in Glendale, Ariz, where he and Harley Marques placed second
- He didn't play on the AVP Tour again until this season, when he lost in the qualifier in Huntington Beach alongside Eric Beranek... then in his first 2 tournaments of the season he reached the finals both times with Billy Allen (finishing second in Virginia Beach on the Tour Series and winning in Denver on the Tour Series)
- In his short AVP career, he has only lost one match when winning the first set (23-1 entering Chicago)... he is 1-9 when losing the first set
- A three-time Olympian, Alison won a silver medal in 2012, won gold in 2016, and placed fifth last year in Tokyo
- On the Brazilian Tour, he has won 40 tournaments, finished second 21 times, and third 19 times (they play the 3rd-place match there)... he won 13 times with Bruno Schmidt and 12 times with Emanuel Rego
- He was a 6-time Best Attacker on the Brazilian Tour, and a 6-time Best Blocker
- This is the first time Alison has played in Chicago

Chicago – Men – #8 Cody Caldwell / Seain Cook
