

Atlanta – Stadium Court Notes – Saturday, August 6, 2022 – Match 7

4:00 pm – #10 John Hyden / Logan Webber vs. #13 Timothy Brewster / Kyle Friend

Head to Head

- This is the first meeting between the teams

Hyden / Webber are playing together for the 5th time on the AVP Tour

- The duo placed 5th in Austin, 9th in New Orleans and Hermosa Beach and 5th in Fort Lauderdale
- As partners they are 9-9 in matches... they are 8-3 when winning the first set, and 1-6 when losing the first set... they are 2-4 in three-set matches... they have lost the first set in 4 of their last 6 matches
- In the season opener in Austin, the duo broke the AVP record for having the biggest age discrepancy between partners in a main draw (23 years, 0 months and 22 days difference in age)

John Hyden – age 49 – 6’5” – hometown San Diego, Calif. – currently Sherman Oaks, Calif. – San Diego State

- This is Hyden’s 160th AVP event with 19 different partners... he has 13 AVP titles, and his last one came in Hermosa Beach 2018... in that tournament he set the record for being the oldest player to ever win an AVP event (was 45 years, 9 months, 22 days old)
- Hyden’s last semifinal came in the 2019 finale, and since then he has lost in the 5th-place match 4 times
- Across all tours this is Hyden’s 9th time playing in Fort Lauderdale... his first time was in April 2003, when Miles Partain (the youngest player here) was just 17 months old... he won in 2012 on the Pro Beach Tour with Sean Scott... this is his 6th AVP tournament in Fort Lauderdale and all six have been played with different partners (three of them were his teammates from the 2000 Olympics)

Logan Webber – age 26 – 6’7” – hometown Grand Rapids, Mich. – currently Grand Rapids, Mich. – Cincinnati Christian

- Webber is playing in his 23rd AVP Tournament with 9 different partners
- Webber’s first semifinal came in Denver earlier this month as he and Seain Cook placed third
- This year Webber played two international events with Miles Evans, and they went from the qualifier to claiming a silver medal in Rhodes, Greece in May

Brewster / Friend are playing together for the 5th time on the AVP Tour

- The duo placed 7th in Denver, 2nd in Waupaca, 3rd in Atlantic City and 13th in Fort Lauderdale
- Both players played with different partners in Muskegon, with Brewster placing 17th and Friend finishing 13th
- By defeating Taylor Crabb / Taylor Sander in the first round in Atlanta, they became the lowest seeded team to beat Crabb since Austin 2019 (lost to 16th-seeded Paul Lotman / Gabriel Ospina in the first round)

Timothy Brewster – age 22 – 6’0” – hometown Los Angeles, Calif. – currently Manhattan Beach, Calif.

- This is Brewster’s 20th AVP event... Friend marks his 10th different partner
- Brewster had never played in an AVP main draw prior to this season
- In his first 15 AVP events, he had a best of 17th place... in his first 3 tournaments this season alongside Friend, he had his 3 best career finishes (2nd, 3rd, 7th)

Kyle Friend – age 33 – 6’5” – hometown Boca Raton, Fla. – currently Newport Beach, Calif. – Long Beach State

- Friend is playing in his 28th AVP Tournament with 7 different partners
- In his first 23 AVP tournaments, Friend had a best of 9th four times... since partnering with Brewster he surpassed that each time (2nd, 3rd, 7th) before last week in Fort Lauderdale (13th)
- Friend has partnered with two former indoor Olympians (Paul Lotman and David Lee)
